are very rarely feared by those who keep them in perfect condition. This is easily done by using a medicine such as Pure Malt Whiskey.

Heart Trouble
Mr. Fred Bennett of West

Carthage, N. Y., writes: "I thought I would write and give you my opinion of Duff's Pure Malt Whiskey. I have used it for the past five years, but not to excess. When in the English army during the Crimean War we were allowed three gills per day, and I know it is the means of saving thousands of men's lives during the winter of 1854. I came to this country in 1857 and went to work on a farm until 1863. Up till then I had never seen a sick day, but after serving through the War of the Rebellion I had not been in heart trouble."

I have had a great many heart troubles, but all of them passed. Then I commenced using the Duff's Pure Malt Whiskey, from which I received little or no benefit. When I tried of your Duff's Pure Malt Whiskey, I commenced using it about ten years ago, and have since more heart trouble and am now 70 years old. I feel quite active.

Duff's Pure Malt Whiskey is no equal as a stimulant and tonic in the world of its kind. It tones up the heart's action, soothes the nerves, and keeps the body healthy and strong. It is a truly healthy and strong tonic.

I feel quite active. I feel quite active. I feel quite active. I feel quite active. I feel quite active.

Minister Egan Substantiates Story of Discovery With Jensen's Letter

Dr. Cook's discovery of the North Pole has been the subject of much discussion and controversy. The world is divided in its opinion as to whether or not he has actually reached the pole. The Danish government, however, has taken a stand in his favor, and this is reflected in the official statement of the Danish minister in Washington, Mr. Egan.

Mr. Egan's statement is a direct refutation of the claims of the American government, which has been making every effort to discredit Cook's discovery. He states that he has received a letter from a Danish official, Mr. Jensen, who has been in contact with Cook during his expedition. Jensen's letter, which is being made public for the first time, contains a detailed account of Cook's journey and his discovery of the North Pole.

The letter is a most interesting document, and it is one which should be read by every one who is interested in the discovery of the North Pole. It contains a great deal of information which is not available elsewhere, and it is a most valuable contribution to the history of the Arctic region.

Dr. Cook's discovery of the North Pole is a most important event in the history of the world. It is a discovery which has opened up a new world of discovery, and it is one which will have a profound effect on the future of the Arctic region.

COOK'S DISCOVERY DIVIDES SCIENTISTS

THE scientific world is divided in its trust in Dr. Cook's claim to have discovered the North Pole. The magnitude of his achievement is such that the world is bewildered by the sudden and unexpected news of his success. The discovery has opened up a new world of discovery, and it is one which will have a profound effect on the future of the Arctic region.

SCIENTISTS BELIEVE IN COOK

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—The expected arrival of Dr. Frederick A. Cook at Copenhagen from the epoch-making trip to the north pole, which probably will be chronicled tomorrow, is the most important news item on the horizon. It is confidently expected by his friends and supporters that he will then produce irrefragable proofs that he reached the north pole, thus allaying the wave of skepticism which has been manifested in the opinions of many of his fellow scientists, both here and abroad.

That Dr. Cook will be able fully to substantiate his claims is indicated by a brief official statement from United States Minister Maurice F. Egan, at Copenhagen, to the State Department, that the reported discovery of the north pole has been corroborated by Pergevard Jensen, the Danish inspector of North Greenland.

It is assumed that the Danish official investigated Dr. Cook's claims after the latter left Greenland, en route to Denmark, and that he was able to confirm them.

The Danish government, which is now in a position to make a final decision on the matter, is expected to announce its decision in the near future. It is believed that the Danish government will support Cook's claim, and that it will recognize him as the discoverer of the North Pole.

HANIFIN GIVES UP LODGE DUTIES

Retires as Secretary of Elks and Myron A. Whidden Takes Place

At last night's meeting of Oakland Lodge No. 111 R. P. O. E. the resignation of Under Sheriff J. J. Hanifin as secretary of the organization a position which he has held for the past fourteen years was accepted. The resignation was tendered a week ago for the reason that Hanifin desired to take a rest after his arduous labors which he has performed during his incumbency.

His successor was found in the person of Myron A. Whidden, one of the best known young men in this city and county.

While Whidden will perform the duties of the office of secretary of the lodge he will also perform those of secretary of the house committee, thus having a dual position to fill. As secretary of the house committee he succeeds Charles Husband.

Whidden, however, is equal to the emergency for the reason that he is a man of ability and experience in fraternal affairs on a contract with but few superiors in this section of the State. For fifteen years he was connected with the office of auditor of Alameda county, and during the remaining eight years he was the principal in the office during his incumbency he made hosts of friends.

In retiring from the position of secretary of the lodge Hanifin has the sincere appreciation of the members for the long and faithful services he has rendered the lodge and his desire to retire was a most pleasant surprise when he was asked to recommend his old friend, Mr. Whidden as his successor.

Secretary Whidden has a charter membership of the lodge of Elks in 1890 and he is the secretary of the organization and is as excited a ruler of the same in 1909.

SHOOTING FEUD TAKES NEW TURN

Two Warrants for Assault Are Sworn to By Frank Wiltermood

FRUITVALE, Sept. 3.—Two warrants for assault with a deadly weapon were issued this afternoon by Judge William Geary as an aftermath of the Wiltermood O'Grady Calhoun shooting feud, which took place in Fruitvale Monday night.

Frank Wiltermood swore to a warrant charging assault with a deadly weapon against Fred Calhoun and Calhoun retaliated by swearing to a warrant on the same ground against Wiltermood.

The affair will be remembered on account of the sensational ending on Monday night of a long standing feud between Poundmaster O'Grady Calhoun and the three Wiltermood brothers. The affair was brought to a focus Monday night when the Wiltermoods O'Grady and Calhoun had a five-sided shooting affair which wound up in Frank Wiltermood and Calhoun going to the Receiving Hospital and two brothers of Wiltermood and Poundmaster O'Grady going to the County Jail.

The warring parties were inclined to let the matter drop, but the district attorney's office insisted that warrants be issued and the cases taken up as he said when it had been in danger the authorities should take some action.

The preliminary examination of Wiltermood and Calhoun will be held in Judge Geary's court on Monday morning at 11 o'clock.

Explorer Baldwin Ready to Start for Pole

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Evelyn B. Baldwin, the Polar explorer and meteorologist, expressed the opinion today that, far from discouraging further efforts Dr. Cook's achievement would prove a spur to explorers, geographers and scientists.

Mr. Baldwin announced that he himself was preparing for another attempt to reach the pole.

"I expect to start soon," he said. "We will proceed in a strong vessel through Bering Strait and make our ship land in the ice pack. Then we hope to drift completely through the northern ocean at the rate of two miles a day passing the Polar point and coming out south again somewhere between the Northeast coast of Greenland and Spitzbergen. I expect to find land to the west of Crokenland. We expect to take along a dirigible balloon which will be useful in making side trips."

BUTCHERS WANT MEAT INSPECTOR

Tuberculosis Infected Cattle Find Way to Markets They Declare

Arguments presented by a committee from the Alameda County Retail Butchers Association, comprised of J. J. Breiling, O. G. Newhall, J. Cox and T. Geary, in favor of having a practical butcher appointed as a meat inspector, so impressed the ordinance and Judiciary committee of the City Council last night that the Board of Health and Veterinary Surgeon Archibald were requested to meet with the committee and discuss a means for creating the position.

Trilling, who is business agent for the local butchers, said he had been a student of this city for thirty-nine years, and that during that time he had never seen any of the regular meat markets inspected.

It is DISAPPOINTED. The public realized the importance of having meat inspected it would not be more than twenty-four hours before an inspector was appointed. He declared the inspector should be a practical man who can tell if meat is good or bad.

NERVOUS WOMEN

Need Just This Tonic Treatment to Build Them Up.

The first thing to do when threatened with nervous trouble is to stop the cause of it, if possible, whether it is irregular living, worry, or whatever it may be. Then the nerves must be given special nourishment and the blood must be kept pure and rich. This is the mission of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and this is why the pills have been used with such great success in nervous trouble that did not yield to ordinary methods of treatment.

These pills are a tonic for both men and women but are especially adapted for girls and young women, and give health and strength to the nervous and exhausted as is shown by the experience of Mrs. H. J. Bradford, of No. 1514 Spurgeon street, Santa Ana Cal. She says:

A few years ago I began to lose flesh rapidly until I weighed only about 100 pounds. Before this I had always been well and quite healthy. I also became nervous and would be awake all night long. I had frequent crying spells which I could not seem to help and which the least little thing could bring on. Excitement or noise made me very nervous. I had a craving for sour things but my appetite was variable. At times I would feel very well but this would be only when I kept very quiet.

The doctor pronounced my trouble neurasthenia or nervous debility. I was under his care for over two years. Sometimes he would treat me regularly and then he might not have to call in two months. I did not get well under his treatment and was finally advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills by a friend who had used them for nervousness.

After taking a few boxes of the pills I could sleep better and I began to improve gradually until I was cured. I haven't been troubled with nervousness in some years now and consider the benefit I received from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to be wonderful.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain the elements necessary to make new blood and as the nerves get their nourishment from the blood, have been found invaluable in a wide range of diseases of the blood and nerves, such as rheumatism, after effects of the grip and fevers, neuralgia, nervous debility, St. Vitus' dance and even partial paralysis and locomotor ataxia.

WANTS ROOSEVELT FOR GRAND HUNT

Abyssinian Prince Promises White Elephant if He Will Come

BERLIN Sept. 3.—Lij Tassu the Crown Prince of Abyssinia has invited Theodore Roosevelt to a great elephant hunt promising to bestow a white elephant on him to kill and otherwise to arrange a splendid sporting program.

This news has been brought into Berlin by Adolph Mayer, a minister of King Menelik of Abyssinia, who has arrived here with a commission from the Abyssinian government to purchase supplies.

King Menelik sent an invitation to Roosevelt to visit his country and to hunt with him. Roosevelt declined, explaining that as he had refused the invitation of several European sovereigns he could not accept a commission from the Abyssinian government to purchase supplies.

FRAUD SUIT IS SETTLED OUT OF COURT

Action Brought by James Sheldon Lux Potter Finally Dismissed

TERMS OF WITHDRAWAL ARE NOT MADE KNOWN

Trustees of the Miller & Lux Corporation Were Accused in Action

SAN FRANCISCO Sept. 3.—The suit brought some time ago by James Sheldon Lux Potter against Henry Miller, L. J. Leroy, Nicholas Louis F. Montague, Gustave Gutach, Arce N. Lewis and T. A. Allen alleging fraud in their conduct as trustees of the Miller & Lux Corporation was dismissed by Judge Shaw II today. An order committing the defendants to the county jail for contempt was vacated at the same time.

It is understood that the defendants have reached a settlement with Potter on the judgment for $500 and interest which he recently obtained against them and that this resulted in Potter's allowing the case to go by default.

SECOND STAY ALLOWED

A demurrer to Potter's complaint was not only sustained by Judge Shaw II but the court also granted a stay of the proceedings. In the meantime Potter had complained that the judgment which he had been granted was ignored by the defendants and that they refused to pay his dividends. The order committing them to the county jail for contempt was issued. A stay of execution was granted for ten days. When this had expired another stay was secured on the statement of counsel to the effect that a settlement was being reached.

REACH SETTLEMENT

The settlement did not take place until after the stay was granted. When it was reached it was upon his vacation leaving the commitment in the hands of Sheriff Potter awaiting instructions. In the meantime the plaintiff and the defendants whose combined wealth is estimated to be in excess of $500,000, got together and reached a settlement. It was not stated the amount paid the plaintiff but it is believed that he insisted upon and received the full amount of the judgment and interest. The case would not go to trial as the complaint was dismissed.

The dispute arose over the actions of Miller and his associates in organizing the Miller & Lux Corporation. It is contended that they had taken a large interest in the corporation in which Potter had a large interest.

Women Wear Bathing Suits When Hotel Fire Burns Clothes

NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE, Ont.—The Stratheona Hotel, one of the landmarks on the frontier and just outside the town limits, caught fire at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon and was burned to the ground. The house and everything in it were destroyed. The loss, including property lost by guests, will be about $25,000.

The fire started in the basement from an undischarged candle and spread rapidly. Fortunately there were very few guests on the second and third floors of the house and they with the twenty house servants escaped just in the nick of time.

The other guests, who numbered possibly 50, were in bathing, on the golf links or tennis courts at the time of the fire. They have left tonight just what they wore. Several women are still in bathing suits. The guests found beds in the private cottages scattered about the Chautauqua grounds.

The Stratheona was a frame, three-story building, worth possibly $15,000. It was owned by a Toronto company. The Queen's Royal, where the championship tennis matches are being played, is a mile and a half away.

Fishermen of French Village Are Content to Let Wives Rule

CANCALE, France, Sept. 3.—In these days of discussions of suffragette movements, women's rights and feminine business acumen, any one in search of an example of an unusual sort might drop in upon this French village port of some 15,000 souls when they are all at home and see a truly woman-run town.

There is no woman mayor, no woman in the town council. The offices are left as a mere matter of form to the men, who are seldom there to fill them, but the women are a law unto themselves; they make up the whole town, transact all the business, police the place, maintain order and strict sanitary conditions, manage the schools, and at the same time carry on the most famous oyster industry of France, doing the entire cultivating and selling and transporting the product of the ocean beds, even loading and unloading the seagoing ships that come and go at the port.

And what is still more interesting to their sisters in other parts of the world the girls of Cancale are the first to be married of all the girls of North and Central France. Ask a French sailor where of all ports—excepting, of course, out of chivalry his own native town—the most beautiful of French fisher girls are to be found and he will tell you at Cancale. You will believe him, too, when you walk along the quays and the narrow streets and see the pretty faces and trim figures, set off to the best advantage in the Breton dress and clean white caps, or watch the little groups in the shade of the street in the afternoon or within the deep set stone doorways mending nets and gossiping as fast as their French tongues can wag.

The conditions that make this a woman-run town, writes a correspondent from Cancale, come about in the most natural way in the world. All the men are fishers and they spend the greater part of the year at sea. They are good sailors and they man the craft that venture across the Atlantic to the French fishing grounds along the Newfoundland coast. It was their rights that used to come up frequently for adjustment by fishery commissions and it is the loss of their vessels that almost every year brings sorrow to Cancale and the neighboring coast.

When the men do return they find that the town has been managed so well in their absence and the thrift of the women has been so well exercised that they are content not to meddle and to let things go on as they have been going. There are proportionately more widows, and young widows, too, in Cancale than in any other town of France. A fisherman's bride waits for four years after she has heard that the boat her husband sailed upon has not been reported and then she waits for another year. It is this uncertainty as to the fate of the men, the fear that at any time they may be thrown helpless and homeless upon their own resources, that makes the women of Cancale self-reliant and leads them early to seek some means of their own for an honest livelihood.

For the men that remain in the town the women (do not seem to entertain the greatest respect. Most of them have become incapable for work or are shiftless and idle. So the women run matters themselves.

Judge Gives Wife 30 Days to Make Pickle Sandwich

CHICAGO—Mrs. Francis Kubnyek has thirty days in which she must learn how to prepare a savory pickle sandwich, the favorite midnight snack of her husband, John Kubnyek, and thus restore the domestic equilibrium of their home.

Municipal Judge Watkins, before whom Kubnyek was arraigned yesterday on a charge of refusing to support his wife, listened to the husband's story, and when he learned that Mrs. Kubnyek could not furnish her husband's favorite sandwich, continued the case thirty days and told her to learn the secret of making this sandwich.

Mrs. Kubnyek told the court her husband grew angry at her inability to prepare him a pickle sandwich after he had finished his work at midnight and drove her from home with a horsewhip.

Baby Wails in Defiance of All New Jersey Laws

Tormented Neighbor Seeks Injunction; Judge Suggests Paregoric

NEWARK, N. J.—A special act of the Legislature may be the only means of stopping the crying of a baby in a flat in No. 118 Sherman avenue, George W. Crater, who lives in the adjoining flat, appealed to Judge Hall in the first criminal court in that city recently for judicial relief from the infant's squalling.

He said he couldn't sleep day or night, because the child cries for hours at a time. The partitions between the flats are thin, and when the baby is quiet, Crater says, he can hear the mother calling to her husband: "John, is it a dookey yet?"

"Then comes," Crater says, "an interval of comparative quiet, followed by several hours more of squalling and howling, until he hears the mother ask: 'John, is it a dookey yet?'"

Crater told the judge he had no positive knowledge on the subject, but he suspected the mother of the baby's mother referred to in various leading times. The judge expressed deep sympathy for Crater, but told him he could not issue a warrant in such a case.

"There must be some way to stop a baby's crying," said Crater.

"The judge suggested an application to the county court for an injunction. When the case was brought to the attention of Judge Judge, he said:

"An injunction will stop a mother, but not a baby, because a mother's head can be wrung off under the writ. I would suggest a mandamus to compel the child's mother to buy paregoric. If she refuses, she can be committed for contempt of court."

High Mollusk, president of the Essex County Anti-Noise Society, said:

"A mandamus is no good in this case, inasmuch as even if the mother is committed for contempt of court the baby may and probably would go on yelling forever. I would suggest a warrant, to make the baby's mother show cause why the child yell. In that way all the facts can be ascertained, and the court can order spanking or a bottle of soothing syrup, as the circumstances warrant."

The second assistant corporation counsel said only a special act of the Legislature can reach the root of the difficulty. He suggested a law making it a misdemeanor for any baby to cry more than ten minutes at a time or more than three times a night, also making it a misdemeanor to keep a crying baby in any other place than a room with airtight sound-proof walls.

Crying babies are not the only things that bother Jersey folk. Not long ago a Hoboken man asked a judge there for an injunction against nine planes in the neighborhood in which he lived. He didn't object to the planes, he said, but more to the combination of sounds they produced when all were played at once. He got his injunction. Hens, chickens and parrots have all been subjected to the restraining effect of court orders.

Wash Cow's Teeth; Bathe 'Em Daily; Dress 'Em in Linen; MORE MILK

CINCINNATI—Real coats for cows and a tooth brushing three times a day are the novel methods adopted in dairy farming by W. Kelsey Schoepf, a traction magnate, who is interested in the street railroads in New York City.

For the past two days the two farmers who have sole charge of his $75,000 herd of twenty-four blooded Jerseys have each morning dressed their charges in the one-piece linen garments so stylish just now. These are calculated to keep the flies off the bosses during the day and consequently keep their blooded dispositions satisfied.

Mr. Schoepf has always been of the opinion that a cow's teeth cleaned like a human being's better health and better milk would result. When it was reported that following the experiment each cow produced over two gallons of rich, pure milk every day, Farmer Schoepf gave orders that the innovation be made permanent.

Ninety pounds of butter over and above the supply for the magnate's house in Cincinnati and town house in New York are produced, and this finds a ready market among the neighbors. The millionaire declares that the sales are not made for profit, but merely to use the surplus milk.

The farm at present is under the superintendency of an employee, but Schoepf declares that in a year from now he intends to spend three or four months on the place and run it himself.

Schoepf's first innovation in dairy farming was to have his cows bathed every day.

The elopement was a romantic one, the young couple having met when Edna went to visit her mother in Cincinnati after she had graduated from school last summer.

Kuhn recently went to Columbus for his examinations, then came to Pittsburgh and eloped with Edna.

Miss Wolcott was a local heroine and in line for a Carnegie medal up to the time of her elopement. She saved her entire family from burning in a fire at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. H. Kuhn, and in the fire of 1907, she saved the life of a young man from Cincinnati, John P. Kuhn, and 11 years ago, she had been employed in the drug store of Mrs. Wolcott's brother, Herman Brunke, of Cincinnati.

Woman Devotes Her Time To Care of Dogs That Are Mad

TRENTON, N. J.—"I wish every one in the country would send his mad dogs to me," declared Miss Minnie Manners of Lambertton today, whose home has been transformed into a mad dog hospital.

Miss Manners has been bitten five times by mad dogs, and in the first three cases she took the Pasteur treatment. Her love for dogs was responsible for her misfortune, but now she believes herself immune from the rabies and is willing to take charge of as many mad dogs as her "home hospital" can accommodate.

Miss Manners, who is 22 years old, has loved dogs since she was able to crawl as a baby. Three months ago her father died and left her a small fortune. She was the only child of her mother having died several years ago. She resolved to live a life of solitude, making her only friends those of the lower animal world.

"I intend to devote all my life to this work," she said. "My income is sufficient to keep me the rest of my life, and to provide treatment for as many 'insane' dogs as can be housed in my home. That the insanity of animals is the same as that of human beings is one thing I'm sure of. We say a man is crazy, and a dog is mad. I have studied the subject thoroughly, having consulted physicians and read up on the subject."

"Many people, even physicians, think that I am foolish, but what do I care as long as I know I am doing my duty? It is a great charity to look after the sick and bury the dead, but why shouldn't someone care for animals who are unable to tell us their complaint, but who like a dog, as is the common trend, and have to suffer without being able to even murmur."

"I'm not afraid of exposure, nor do I want praise. My ideas are peculiar, but I think they are original, and I can use my money as I like."

CHRISTIAN'S PUZZLING CURVES EARN FOR HIM CLEAN-CUT VICTORY OVER LOS ANGELES

Seraphs Go Down in Third Straight Defeat Before Rejuvenated Athenians---Seals Buy New Pitcher From Texas League

By HERMAN F. BUDDE.

PITCHER KOLSTNER, of Los Angeles, could not get and is expected on the grounds this afternoon. Today in the hopes of breaking the winning streak of the Athletics, but he was not the way of his performance and for nine innings he was the hardest worker ever performed in his life. He gave up the job as a pitcher and was sent to Duany, Iowa, yesterday for Rex Ames, and so the Athletics' pitching staff was weakened. The Athletics' manager described the new recruit from the Texas League as a high class twirler in the Lone Star State, having won 10 per cent of his games.

An emergency call was sent to Duany, Iowa, yesterday for Rex Ames, and so the Athletics' pitching staff was weakened. The Athletics' manager described the new recruit from the Texas League as a high class twirler in the Lone Star State, having won 10 per cent of his games.

Los Angeles might have scored had they not been too anxious. On their separate occasions a number of pitcher's army was put out at the plate trying to make home, either on a single or from an infield grounder. In the very first round it appeared as if Christian might have a score. His first pitch was a curve on third and Gowin on first and an out, but by dint of great pitching and nailing Wheeler's line drive the safe was not reached without a tally. In the second and third rounds the Athletics looked dangerous but the Athletics managed to put the lid down just at the proper moment.

The fifth inning was the anxious one for Oakland. McKinnis' line drive on Smith boot, was sacrificed to second by Carl Lewis and romped into the haven on singles by Christian and Kelly. Cameron tallied in the following round. This sacrifice play was a real pinch hit. McKinnis' sacrifice, Hogan's out at the plate and Carl Lewis' sacrifice, McKinnis' sacrifice, Hogan's out at the plate and Carl Lewis' sacrifice, McKinnis' sacrifice, Hogan's out at the plate and Carl Lewis' sacrifice.

By virtue of pitcher the Oaks took the third straight from Los Angeles. This is not a bad record, but not by any means. The Athletics will have the hardest time in their life to take the series now. Of course they will have six more games with the Angels, but it is very doubtful. They have secured the men up to the winning point now and though they may not finish in the pennant race this year, they will have a whole lot to say in that race yet.

Cameron's base running gave a score of fans the cold chills. He actually stole third—a most remarkable feat for him. Just before he reached the difficult corner he threw himself down, and as he slid fifty feet away from the base, he was hit by a line drive from the Athletics. THE Slough City men scored a partial revenge on the invaders yesterday afternoon at Grove Street Park for their defeat of the two previous days by taking a 4-to-2 victory. George Cooper occupied the mound for the visitors and held his opponents at bay throughout. His speed was tremendous and his curve the very best. One hit in seven innings represented the damage of the South Siders. When the Stocktonians got a safe lead he took things easier with the result that the invaders bunched three hits in the eighth and ninth innings, and with a couple of errors saved the humiliation of a shutout. It was not only as a pitcher that George shone, but in the field he killed a couple of base hits, stopping grounders, bunting and handling batted balls like a Lajoie. Bill Bloomfield was on the firing line for the local for the second time this week and pitched a fair article of ball, but unfortunately for him the Millers persisted in accumulating their hits.

The Slough City men registered two runs on their second trip to the plate. Van Buren singled over second, was out at second on a fielder's choice by Miller, who hit to Campbell. Le Brand singled over short. Waters was given free transportation, filling the bases. Hallman bled to center for one big, scoring Miller and Le Brand.

The game was progressing smoothly with a couple of spectacular catches, Oakland scored a run in the sixth without making a single hit. After Joyce had been retired Cooper tried to put too much "stuff" on in trying to stave off Bloomfield. A nasty boulder followed, and Mertes scooping up the ball, gripped the moist portion of the sphere, chucking it over first base, Bloomfield taking second. Burns was safe at the initial sack on.

'Rube' Waddell Tells
Of the Coming Styles

Mr. G. Edward Waddell, popularly known as "Rube," the famous pitcher and arbiter of fashion, was on Broadway recently and was at once surrounded by admiring "fans," and also by would-be dressy gentlemen, eager to learn how the styles would be worn this fall.

"Can you give me an idea, Mr. Waddell," asked a fan, "how trousers will be worn this season?"

"Mr. Waddell smiled benignly.

"Most of the boys," he said, "will use them for hats, with the slack trousers, and the suspenders sliced out for pumps, but some will hardly become so potent in America."

"What will be the real fad in shirts, Mr. Waddell?" asked another fan.

"I judge," said the Arbiter of Elegance, "that shirts will be subdued. That is to say, you won't see them. Red sweaters will take their place, especially in full dress. Can you show me anything more superb than a red sweater with a spiculated collar? The suit can be made more striking and attractive by wearing no shoes, but this is optional with the individual."

Nothing but necks," replied the glass of fashion.

"The proper tie for the coming fall will be worn without a collar, looped over the sweater, but with the ends brought back and fastened to the back. A very charming variety of tie will be made of a tied hatband. You get the shape down to a delicate brown, then cut him in a circle—excavate his works, as it were. Put your head through the circle, and pour a little violet ink on the gills. The resultant effect is indescribably magnificent."

"Thank you, Mr. Waddell," exclaimed the instructed throng.

"Nothing at all," the gentleman—nothing at all. And Mr. Waddell passed majestically upon his fashionable way.
